How can we follow the example of Jesus' mission in the world today? In the following paragraphs, there are some ideas how we can follow Jesus' mission.

How would you feel if you were left out of something you wanted to do? Segregation is one example of being left out of something you want to do because you're black. I would not like to be left out myself, so we should include others if they are left out. That's one way we can follow Jesus' mission.

We can also follow Jesus' mission by doing simple things like forgiving people when they do something bad to you. Another way we can follow Jesus' mission is by being a peacemaker. When you see a fight you should stop it or even sometimes when you start a fight, stop it.

One other way we can follow Jesus' mission is by helping others with their homework. Another way is by helping them if they have a disability. Also, you could help others if they need assistance, like helping an elderly person carry their groceries. Would you like help if you needed assistance?

So you can see that there are some ways we can follow Jesus' mission. Some are easier and some are harder. They seem hard but are easier when you try. If you do good deeds, you will be able to follow Jesus' example.
